WEEK 12 PREVIEW

The regular season's final week arrives with three teams – Butler, Dayton and Drake – still in the hunt for a piece of the PFL championship and a berth in the fourth Gridiron Classic.

The final week's most pivotal contest has Drake visiting Butler with both teams holding PFL championship aspirations. Drake dropped its home finale to Dayton last week and was held to a season-low six points. Butler saw its unbeaten run come to an end with a loss at Jacksonville last week, scoring a season-low seven points. A Butler win gives it a share of its second PFL title and first since 1994. A Drake win gives it a share of its fifth PFL crown and first since 2004.

Dayton put itself back into the championship picture with a win last week but will need a home victory to grab a share of its 10th PFL title and first since 2007. Marist, the league's newest member, has won a school-record six straight and sits just behind the league-leading trio at 5-2. Dayton downed Drake on the road last week with an impressive defensive performance. Marist also won a road contest at Davidson, holding the Wildcats to two field goals.

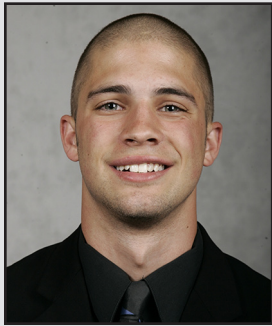

Morehead State travels to Valparaiso in a meeting between two programs seeking their season's first PFL victory. Both teams were held to one score in losses last week. Morehead State scored a touchdown in its home loss to San Diego while Valparaiso was held to a field goal in a home loss to Campbell.

Campbell returns home to close out its season against Jacksonville. The Camels will look for a better result than last year's 52-0 loss to the Dolphins in Jacksonville. Both programs enter the week with Week 11 victories. Jacksonville's defense held league-leading Butler to seven points last week. Campbell surrendered just three points at Valparaiso, its first-ever PFL road win.

San Diego closes out its 2009 slate with a non-conference contest against Southern Utah which is coached by former USD assistant Ed Lamb. The Toreros are just 1-3 at Torero Stadium this season and will be playing its only non-conference home contest this season.
